1961

To Our Principal

This 1961 Seabreeze is dedicated to Principal Leo Marlantes in appreciation of his many years of understanding leadership and selfless dedication to the welfare of the students of Seaside Union High School.

Student Body President

It has been a wonderful privilege and honor for me to serve as the Student Body President this year. Without the very efficient cooperation of the Student Council and fellow student members, this year would not have been so successful. I've sincerely enjoyed being a leader of such a well-respected school as ours, SHS.

Sincerely,

JIM AULD

The purpose of the National Honor Society is to encourage scholarship, promote good leadership, and develop outstanding character. At an induction ceremony held April 19 the following members were inducted: Sonya Soukup, John Bracher, Pat Grubmeyer, Karl Marlantes, Mike Hendrickson, Ginny Kari, Allen Reinikka, Norm McCorkle, Chuck Niemi and Jeff Furnish. The traditional five candles, gold, scholarship; red, service; green, leadership; blue, citizenship; white, character, were lit and the new members took their oath to uphold the fundamentals of the National Honor Society Constitution.

As another year comes to a close the ever-peppy spirited Rally girls look back over the football, basketball, baseball and track seasons recalling many fond memories. Sponsoring a pep dance, decorating for games, and games, games and more games kept these fourteen girls quite busy. Elected in the spring by popular vote, the rally squad assumes responsibility for creating school spirit, and promoting good sportsmanship, fulfilling their role as representatives of SHS.

This year the mighty Seaside football team rolled to its fifth consecutive league championship. They won the Cowapa League with a record of nine wins and no defeats. In the quarter finals of the state play-offs the Gulls defeated the Willamina Bulldogs 18-12. They were then defeated by Myrtle Point 12-0 in the semi-final game to finish the season with a record of ten wins and one loss.

This year the Gulls were coached by Mr. Chester Bowser, who was assisted by Mr. Steve Johnson. This was Mr. Bowser's first year as head coach and he did an excellent job in leading the team to their fine season.

The Seaside High School basketball team climaxed a highly successful season by winning the consolation championship at the State A-2 Tournament in Coos Bay.

After a slow start, the Gulls bounced back and won the Western half of the Cowapa League. At the district tournament in Portland, Seaside beat Clatskanie and Vernonia to earn the league championship and the right to go to the state tournament.

The Seagulls finished the season with a record of 19 wins and 7 losses.

The Gulls were led to this the best season in SHS history by coach Tom House in his first year as coach at SHS. Congratulations Coach — and thanks!

The theme of the 1961 Senior Ball held February 25 was "South Pacific". This was carried out in a tropical setting. The centerpiece consisted of an island, complete with raft, trees, bones and footprints. The ceiling was covered with yards and yards of fishnet interwoven with miniature blinking lights. A rock fountain amidst tropical flowers and moss with a multicolored spotlight made a focal point on one wall. A small grass hut, a rock garden and a coconut grove helped add to the atmosphere.

"Inn of the Sixth Happiness" was the theme chosen for the Junior Prom held April 8 at the Garden Room of the Crab Broiler. The theme was carried out in Japanese style which included Japanese lanterns, lettering and wall plaques. The Garden Room looked out on a large pond covered with assorted flowers to give a special garden effect.

Junior Class Play

There was no lead in the Junior Class Play "The Remarkable Incident at Carson's Corners." Most of the cast had approximately the same number of lines. The play was different from previous high school presentations in that it took place not only on the stage but also throughout the audience. The characters were called from the audience to the stage as if they were visitors. The play was a story of a whole town put on trial by their children for the death of a school boy.

The cast includes: Dan Coffman, Carolle Welk, Charles Hendryx, Bev Smits, Steve Young, Marilyn Like, Harry Dichter, Ann Marie Olson, Gary Putnam, Sharon Pate, Ed Nimmo, Betty Pasco, Judy Reed, Gerry Sroufe, Greg Thompson, Rod Inman, Diane Desler, Loma Bower, Frances Sagner, Sonya Soukup, Jolly Steel, Martha Herrmann, Molly Nydegger, Rick Olson, Dave Lewis, David Davis, Gary Anderson, Linda Davenport, Mike Speich. Tim Emmons and Bob Bechtold. Mr. Sherman Black, drama instructor, was director of the play. Karen Amey and Cheryle Hendrickson were student directors.

Sno-Ball

Queen Kathi Kerwin

Queen Kathi Kerwin was ruler of the "Wonderland by Night" Sno-ball dance sponsored by the White Caps January 28. The ceiling of the cafetorium was lowered by clusters of snowflakes hanging from the lights. Multi-colored park benches were placed around the room for seating. Fir trees were arranged throughout the room to give an outdoor illusion.

Marty Chave
Regatta Princess

Each high school in Clatsop County elects a princess to compete for queen of the Astoria Regatta. Seaside's princess, Marty Chave, was announced at SHS's Regatta dance. Others who tried out for princess were Judy Vikturek, Karen and Kathy Erickson and Barbara McKnight.

Miss Seaside
GINNY KARI

Ginny Kari was chosen Miss Seaside for 1961 at the Miss Seaside Pageant held Saturday, April 23. Karen Amey, Caryn Hundere, Creddy Jones, Ginny Kari and Sunnee Paden were selected as the five finalists. Each girl had to answer two questions extemporaneously and was judged on intellect, personality and poise. First runner-up was Karen Amey; second runner-up, Sunnee Paden; and Miss Congeniality, selected by student body vote, was Creddy Jones. Darlene Cummings, who lost the Miss Congeniality award by one vote, was given a special trophy.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

I wish to extend my best wishes to the largest class ever to graduate from Seaside High School. This class came to our school with tremendous potential and proved that potential by its many accomplishments. It has undoubtedly been one of the most successful of graduating classes. I am convinced that this community will continue to have reason for pride as these students continue their education and go on into life. We will miss you, but would not think of altering your course. To the class of 1961—congratulations. Show us what you can do.
